

HIGHLIGHTS FROM A FEW OF THE MANY UNIQUE WOMEN-RUN FARMS & FOOD BUSINESSES...

CIRCLE M MARKET FARM

Kriss Marion and her husband Shannon own and operate Circle M Market Farm, a CSA outside of Blanchardville, Wisconsin. Circle M hosts farm dinners and farm stays. In addition to farming, Kriss is a wool craft artist and educator. See www.circlemfarm.com for more info.

COW & QUINCE

Cow & Quince is the first community supported restaurant (CSR) in Green County. Cow & Quince is open to the public, but offers annual memberships. Members support local community farms, artisans, and business and have access to CSR member-only events, pre-sale access to special events and classes, and more. See www.cowandquince.com for more info.

GRASSROOTS FARM

Lindsey Morris Carpenter operates Grassroots Farm with her mom Gail. Grassroots Farm sells product directly to consumers through community supported agriculture shares sold in Chicago, Madison, and Monroe. Products include fresh vegetables, eggs, flowers, dairy, and meat. Lindsey is a recipient of the Family Farm Defender's John Kinsman Beginning Farmer Food Sovereignty Prize. See www.grassrootsfarmllc.com for more info.

LANDMARK CREAMERY

An award-winning creamery run by Anna Landmark & Anna Thomas Bates. Anna Landmark is one of only a small handful of female cheesemakers in Wisconsin. See www.landmarkcreamery.com for more info.

SUGAR MAPLE EMU FARM

Sugar Maple Emu Farm in Brodhead, an egg to retail business producing local emu oil, emu meat, and emu eggs. See www.sugarmapleemu.com for more info.

INN SERENDIPITY BED & BREAKFAST AND FARM

Completely powered by the wind and sun, the award-winning Inn Serendipity showcases their farm-fresh produce in their guests' vegetarian breakfasts with creative seasonal dishes. Recipes for what they serve are found in their Farmstead Chef cookbook. Owners Lisa Kivirist and John Ivanko have written numerous other books including Homemade for Sale, ECOprenuring and Rural Renaissance. See www.innserendipity.com for more info.